Taxidermist is:

Stijn van Oers: Vocals & Guitar

Wouter Maes: Bass

Jan van Tiel: Guitar

Peter Palermo: Drums

Taxidermist, rockmachine from Nijmegen (the Netherlands), is proud to present its new album Mean Machine. A hypnotising mix of alternative rock, catchy grooves, post-stoner influences and atmospheric soundscapes.

Expect a hefty dose of melancholy, partly thanks to dark vocals reminding of the Posies or Mark Lanegan. A new drummer (Peter Palermo – Gitbox!, Indian Summer) makes the band an even more groovy, mesmerizing machine. Guest appearances by Pieter Holkenborg (Automatic Sam) and Sophie Veline complete the “David Lynch feel” this new album reveals.

The well received debut album - Desert Calm - , over 25 shows with a notable supporting gig for Troy van Leeuwen's Sweethead will be followed by their newborn Mean Machine that beholds influences from bands such as Mogwai, dEUS, Radiohead and Beck.

Pressquotes

“Roaring , growling , steaming and then again withheld and ominously catching its breath”
-Kindamuzik.nl about Desert Calm

“Sit back and relax and let the album take you away: this record is worth it”
-3voor12 about Desert Calm

“What's so great about 'Desert calm' is that the album, without swerving, is - within the genre of heavy guitar records - very diverse”
-Kroese about Desert Calm

“The performance is like a releaseshow should be: A triumph”
-3voor12 about Desert Calm releaseshow

“With claps and catchy choirs lyrics about suicide; not many bands will get away with it. On Collision Taxidermist succeeds admirably”
-3voor12 Luisterpaal - Hollandse Nieuwe 48 – about 'Collision'
